

RESOURCES FOR VETERANS

What is Benefits.gov?

As the official benefits website of the U.S. government, Benefits.gov is dedicated to connecting citizens in need to assistance programs. With information on over 1,000 government benefits, the program you're looking for could be just a few steps away.

How Can Benefits.gov Help You?

As a veteran, you face unique circumstances and may qualify for assistance programs which may help you with your healthcare, service benefits, and access to job training, among other benefits.

What Can You Expect to Find?

Here are a few benefits for which you may be eligible:

The Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB) is an educational assistance program that provides up to 36 months of education benefits to those who have served on active duty and meet the requirements.

The VA Home Based Primary Care Program is a unique home care program that provides primary care in the homes of veterans with complex medical, social, and behavioral conditions for whom routine clinic-based care is not effective.

The Veterans' Employment & Training Service (VETS) Program provides veterans and service members with the resources and services to succeed in the workforce. These programs serve to maximize employment opportunities for veterans, protect their employment rights, and meet workforce demands with qualified veterans.

Begin Your Search

Start the Benefit Finder, a confidential questionnaire that will pre-screen your eligibility for government benefits. You will be able to view a list of benefits that you may be eligible for based on how you respond.

Browse benefits by category and filter results by state, browse benefits by their federal managing agency, or use the search bar to help you find resources for your needs.

Visit Benefits.gov to find assistance for you and your family. An award-winning multi-agency partnership managed by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Connect With Us

